

Frequently Asked Questions: JAB Annual Conference and JAB-ASBH Fellowship

- What is JAB?

The Japan Association for Bioethics (JAB), established in 1988, is one of the oldest and the largest associations in bioethics field in Japan. JAB currently has about 1500 members from various disciplines. It has held an annual conference since its founding. The Association has also hosted six international conferences and workshops over the past 30 years. In 1991, the JAB began publishing its first academic journal “SEIMEI-RINRI (Bio-ethics).”

- When (and Where) will the next JAB annual conference take place?

The 32nd annual conference will be held on December 5th to 6th, 2020, at Plaza Verde, located in Numazu city of Shizuoka prefecture (Plaza Verde URL: <https://www.plazaverde.jp/en/>).

- How do I get to the conference place?

Numazu city is at about 125 km away from Tokyo. The easiest way to get to Numazu from abroad is to enter Japan at either Narita or Haneda international airport, and then at Tokyo station or Shinagawa station, take a Tokaido Sanyo Shinkansen (superexpress) to Mishima and change there for a local train(JR Tokaido Main Line) to JR Numazu station. (It takes about 80 minutes from Tokyo or Shinagawa to Numazu). Alternatively, take a Keisei Bus to Numazu at Narita international Airport. (It takes about 220 minutes from Narita to JR Numazu station.)

Plaza Verde is located just a 3 minute walk away from the north exit of JR Numazu Station. (See: <https://www.plazaverde.jp/en/#access>).

- What is the JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund?

The JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund is established for the purpose of enhancing international exchange and collaboration between American Society for Bioethics and Humanities (ASBH) and Japan Association for Bioethics (JAB) members in 2019. The JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund is paid in full by JAB, and invites one of ASBH's members to attend the annual JAB conference.

- What JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund provide?

The awardee of the JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund will be paid the amount of 300,000 JPY (approximately 2,700 USD depending on exchange rates). In addition, the conference registration fee will be waived for the awardee.

- When will the funds be provided?

In principle, the fund will be paid in cash to the awardee following completion of participation at the JAB conference with a signed receipt by the awardee. However, based on the request of the awardee, JAB may consider the advance payment within a month after the notification of result. If the awardee receives the advance payment, all the service charges or commissions for the bank transfer will be borne from the grant. The total fee is expected to be around 70 to 80 dollars.

- Who is eligible to apply?

To be eligible for the JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund, applicants must meet the following requirements and agree in writing to the following conditions.

- 1) Applicants must be current ASBH members in good standing.
- 2) All ASBH members are eligible, but special consideration will be given to those who received their doctorate or professional degree within the past 5 years.

- How can I apply the JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund?

Applicants must submit the application form and an abstract of 300-500 words. You can download a copy of application form at: <https://ja-bioethics.jp/asbh.html>

- When is the deadline for applications?

The submission deadline is 23:59 JST Monday, June 1st, 2020.

- When will the awardee be announced?

The awardee will be announced by July 31st, 2020. The selection committee will directly notify the result to the ASBH Board first, and then the applicant. Notification to applicants will occur in writing following ASBH Board notification. JAB aims to provide applicant notification within 2 months from the submission deadline.

- What are the obligations of the awardee?

The awardee of the JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund is obliged to:

- 1) Present a 20 minutes paper at the 32nd annual JAB conference in English.
- 2) Chair a 2-3 hours session in English at the same JAB conference, including speaker introductions, moderating the session and Q & A. Please prepare chair's own questions for each speaker in case that there are only a few questions from the audience.
- 3) Submit a short report (500-word limit) to the ASBH Board of Directors and the JAB Boards of Director within 30 days after the conference's end. The report should indicate how the experience attending the JAB conference might be useful for the awardee's future research, teaching, or other professional activities.

- Who reviews my applications?

All application forms will be reviewed either solely by the committee for international collaboration of JAB, or jointly by the committee for international collaboration of JAB and a selected member of ASBH.

- What are the criteria of evaluation?

Evaluation of applicants will be based on the caliber of the submitted abstract, and its relevance to attendees at a future JAB conference. In addition, high marks will be granted for original and well-reasoned submission.

- Does the fund have the limitation of purpose for usage?
The fund is designated for purpose of reimbursed expenses associated with preparing for and attending the 32nd annual JAB conference, including: 1) travel expenses (flight and ground transportation), 2) accommodation and travel expenses in Japan, 3) international travel insurance fee, 4) other necessary expenses related to participation at the intended conference at the approval of JAB's international committee.

- Do I have to submit receipts or payment details?
No. The awardee does not need to submit any receipts or payment details.

- Do I have to book my flights and accommodations?
Yes. The booking of flights and accommodations etc. must be made by the awardee himself/herself.

- Who can I contact, if I have questions related to the JAB-ASBH Fellowship Fund?
If you have any questions, please contact the JAB office: international@ja-bioethics.jp
